Puppy Raiser List of Responsibilities

Home Stay: 16-20 months (may vary)

Financial:

- Thanks to the very generous corporate sponsorship of Hill's Pet Nutrition, puppy raiser families will receive free dog food while raising the KSDS puppy. The puppy should be fed the provided Hills Pet Nutrition dog food without diet changes unless approved by KSDS. No people food shall be fed.
- Spay or neuter the puppy at four to six months of age and maintain the vaccination program suggested by KSDS. (Some members of the Kansas Veterinary Medical Association are reducing or donating fees for our puppies. You may ask your veterinarian if they are a participating member of the KVMA health care program.) Send KSDS a copy of the spay/neuter bill and KSDS will refund up to $100 of the cost.
- Maintain a heartworm monthly prevention program. Through generous contributions from Merial Co., Heartgard® is provided to the KSDS puppy raisers.
- Maintain an internal and external parasite control program.

Training:

- Housebreak and teach house manners (puppy must be raised in the home)
- Teach basic obedience: Heel, sit, stay, come, down, etc.
- Teach advance obedience (if applicable): retrieve, tug, etc.
- Teach the puppy to start learning from and communicating with people

Socialization:

- Expose the puppy to different environments and situations
- Develop good manners for your puppy at home and in public

KSDS will provide a training manual and monthly report forms to send to KSDS so we can monitor puppy progress. An "Assistance Dog in Training" cape will be provided after KSDS receives proof of rabies vaccination, for identification of the puppy to the public. The puppy must wear its puppy cape when in public.

*****

Kansas Law (and many other states) does not give puppy raisers "Rights to Access". Puppy raisers must ask for permission before entering businesses and other public places with a puppy

*****

KSDS encourages puppy raisers to give talks to civic groups, service organizations and others to promote what they are doing. Encourage others to donate their time, services, and financial support to help KSDS continue the placements of canine assistance for people who are visually impaired or physically disabled.
